

Film Database General Information

Pat and I have been watching a feature film together most evenings since the first lockdown in March 2020, unless we are away or watching an important footie match for example...

We strictly take it in turns to choose a film. Start time: 7:30pm.

Most of the movies I chose to watch have appeared on an old and constantly updated list of "films to see before I die".

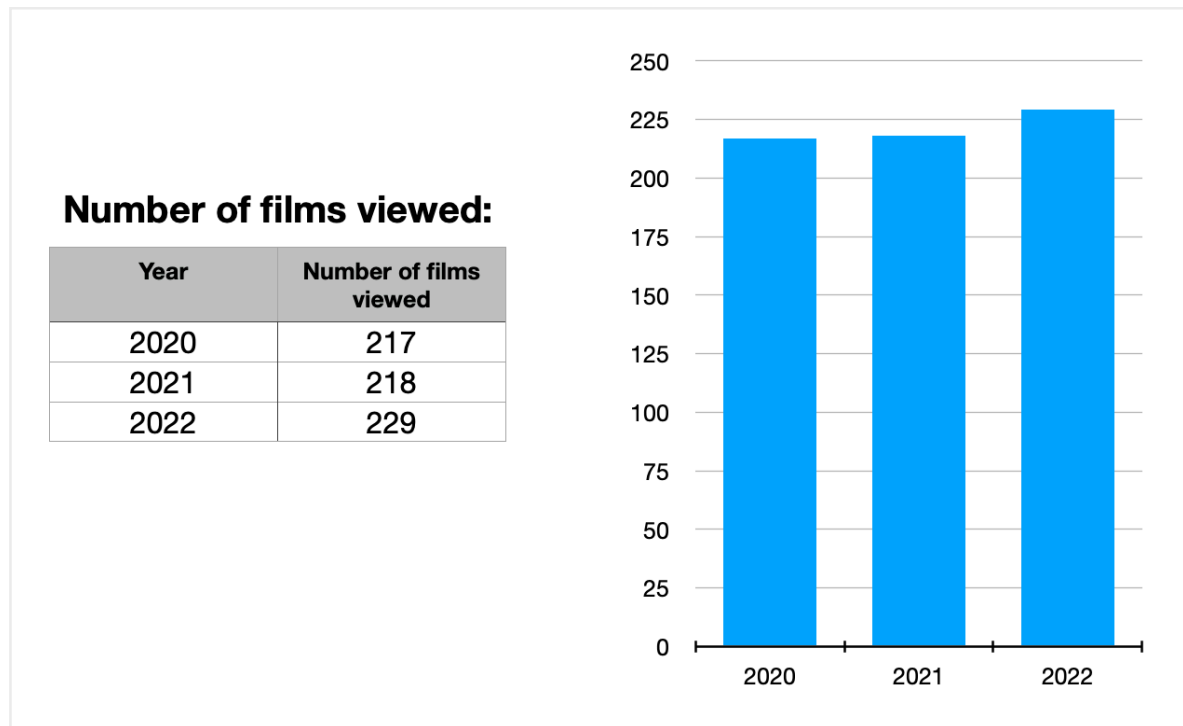

Many friends, family, colleagues and even random people I've met in the pub have contributed suggestions over many years now.

To find the films, we make use of:

- Netflix
- Amazon Prime
- IPlayer
- YouTube
- Disney+
- ITV Hub
- or sometimes the cheapest option is to buy a specific film on DVD from Ebay!

To keep track of our daily viewings, we've been using database software called "Tap Forms 5 for Mac/iPhone/iPad".

Total films watched to date: 719! There are currently still another 297 on my list of "films to see before I die".

Ratings

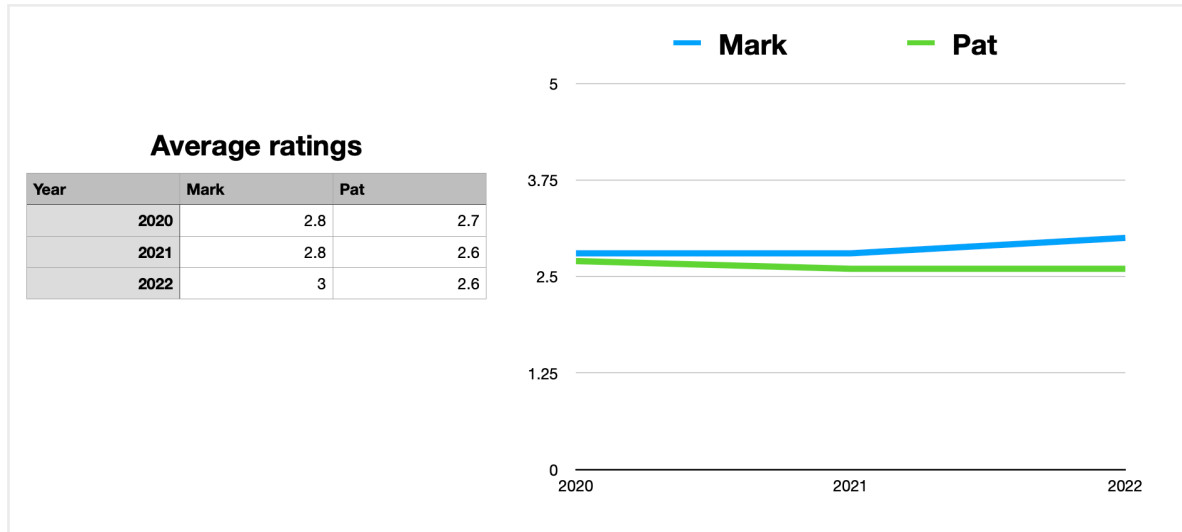

Each movie is marked out of 5 by each of us.

N.B. a rating of 1 is forbidden (for database technical reasons!).

N.B. a rating of 5 is only bestowed in very rare cases.

Ratings

Marks out of 5	Scoring guide
1	Awful. No films were that bad!
2	Disappointing.
3	Fine. Enjoyable.
4	Really enjoyed it and would like to see it again sometime. Would recommend to others.
5	An absolute favourite! A keeper.

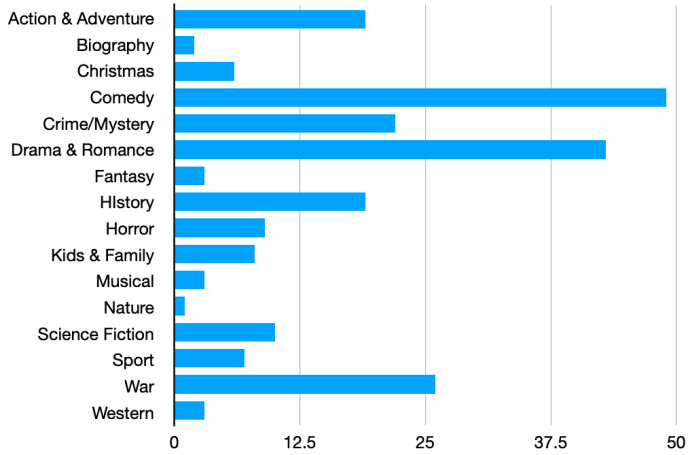

Clearly, Pat is more discerning than Mark!

Personal Choices – Mark

Mark favours Comedy, Drama and War films.

Biopic and History are also important.

Not very interested in Musicals, Fantasy, Science Fiction or Horror movies

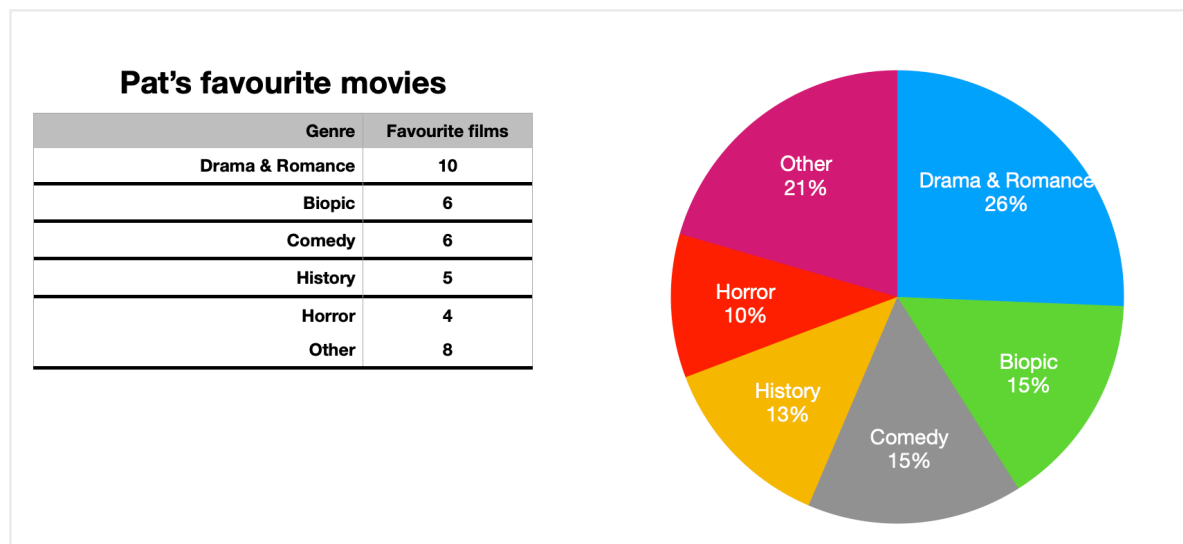

Personal Choices – Pat

Pat favours a more rounded variety of films than Mark

She likes Drama & Romance, Biopics and Comedy.

History and Horror are also important.

Pat is seldom inspired by War films

Notes on Genre

Comedy

Could include 'Dark Comedy', 'Situation Comedy', Spoofs etc.

Many films may also belong to other genres (e.g. crime, Science Fiction, etc.) but if it's essentially funny, then the genre is deemed as 'Comedy'.

Dad's Army is set during war, but is really just comedy.

Drama & Romance

Includes most novels.

Horror

Could include suspense movies and ghost stories.

Sport

Could include cricket, football, basketball, boxing, running, wrestling, horse riding, skating, martial arts and even dodge ball!

History

Could include 'Historic Novels' like 'David Copperfield' or period pieces like 'Barry Lyndon'.

War

War films also include 'anti-war' films, or dealing with subjects related to war.
